'Know

thyself'
ancient Maxim.

Whatever may be the original meaning, we can use this to stress the need for self-learning. It applies both to students and teachers. Most of us are under the impression that learning is limited and mostly it happens in the class room. The concept of self learning is based on the relevance and the need for diagnosing our learning needs, formulating our learning goals and identifying the learning resources. Most of the great men and Women who have excelled in their fields will agree that their success is largely due to their self-learning. Depending less on teachers and more on ourselves is essential in the modern world because of several constraints such as time, space, money and quality of the class room. Identify your learning resources which are in the form of books, internet, journals, hand-on training, academic counseling from your teachers, your seniors. In self learning you can remain in your own comfort zone- for example, your house, the library or a public place and you can learn at your own pace, you can learn repeatedly till you gain clear knowledge in a subject.

Therefore, focus your attention on ‘self-learning’ and ‘continuous learning’ in order to be successful in today’s competitive world.

ALL THE BEST.

HISTORY OF THE COLLEGE

Government Degree College, Razole was established in the year 1968. Prior to it, students of Razole who wish to pursue higher education had to go to Rajahmundry, Kakinada or Vijayawada. Only elite people of the society could afford such luxury. Keeping this in view, many prominent personalities of this area dreamt and strived for the creation of a Degree College in this area. In 1966 Sri.Ponnada Hanumantha Rao, an young advocate of this area, organized a big meeting with all the sections of the society and created awareness among them about the need of having a Degree College in Razole. Some of the prominent persons of this area like, the Honorable Minister Sri. Rudra Raju Ramalinga Raju, Sri. Mangena Sathyanarayana Murthy, Sri. Nainala Ganeswara Rao, Sri. Geddam Mahalakshmi, M. Venugopala Rao, Sri. Bolla Sathyanarayana, Sri. Akula Buli Swamy, Bodapati Narasimharao, Sri.Kanumuri Rangaraju, Nagaram Zamindar Md.Kalab Ali Baig, Sri. Jana Veera Badhra Rao, Sri. Vemparala Kameswara Rao, Sri. Vadrevu Subrahmanyam, Sri. Raja Subbarao as Treasurer and other members.

In those days for establishment of a Government Degree College, it was mandatory for the local people to show 3 lakh rupees as corpus fund and a minimum of ten acres land. The committee raised the funds from the local people. People donated for this noble cause irrespective of class and creed. Sri. Bolla Venkata Ratna Prasad contributed 1 lakh rupees. 10 acres belonging to Damu vari family. They humbly gave their valuable lands for a cheaper price for the establishment of the college.

Then the Government accorded permission for the establishment of the College on 8th August, 1968 vide GO.MS. No. 1524, Education Department dated 3-8-1968. Dr. V.S. Krishna the then Vice Chancellor of Andhra University who happened to be son in law of this soil, helped in according all permissions from Andhra University.

The College was started temporarily in Zilla Parishad Higher Secondary School. In August 1970 the College was shifted to newly constructed buildings. In 1974, Science Block was constructed. In 1991 Library building was inaugurated by the then Regional Joint Director of Education Sri. K. Venkata Reddy. In the year 2005 Seminar Hall and Two Class Rooms were opened by the then Razole Constituency MLA Sri. Alluri Krishnam Raju. He also took steps for granting 40 lakhs rupees fund for this college and with which a compound wall and 9 class rooms were constructed.

From 1968 to 1971 this college conducted PUC and Degree classes as per the syllabi prescribed by the Andhra University. Later on PUC course was dispensed with. From 1987 onwards common core scheme is being implemented. The college was bifurcated into Government Junior College and Government Degree College on 31st August, 1996. In October 1997 Dr.B.R. Ambedkar Open University started a Study centre in this college.

JKC Extension centre was launched in this college in the year 2007 with a view to enhance the employment potentials of the young graduates by imparting communication skills Soft skills and Computer Oriented skills. This Institute Acts As A “Knowledge Centre” And Promises To Provide Its Students The Enlightenment From Their Ignorance. This Institution Has Been Giving Its Best to Uphold the Motives And Objectives Set In The Emblem And Forever Will Do So.

COLLEGE SONG

It has taught us to be innovative...
It had our brains washed
It has taught us to walk
It has enlightened us to be sensible
It has warned us to be cautious of the future
People have started to make new ventures
People have invented new ways of life
Teachers have discovered novel teaching
New platforms of watching movies have been devised....Aha...
Health care has become a new normal
Healthy diet is what is given top priority
It has removed our blindfolds
Hence, it has taught us to see light in utter darkness....

THE MOTHER'S LOVE

Hunger knows no discrimination
This lamb consumes the leaves
To its heart's content
The leaves of a thorny shrub
The thorns are piercing
But the innocent lamb least considers it

For its appetite can never be gratified
Until it swallows some

Hunger knows no taste nor does it know
No danger

This lamb chews the tenderest of the leaves
For it has to convert them into milk
To feed its new borns
Which await their mother at home
The selfless mother lamb is all cheerful
That she can nourish it's baby lambs to their stomachful....

MY DREAM AND A REALITY

I have always longed to attain this throughout my life
And yes, I could make it
With much diligence
For years together I have toiled for it
It was never a day dream
It never did let me take a slumber
It would haunt me
Like a hunter does it for his prey

Family's backing is highly lauded
Friends and colleagues played their role
No weddings
No birthday bashes
No banquets
Only books
That was my chore objective

The d day has arrived
And yes I could make it
My phone was filled with messages of accolades
Greetings from all around
Ecstatic is what one can better describe me
My family enjoyed a limitless joy
They were received with high esteem

But I did never sense
That is was short lived joy
Flung at a faraway place
Whether to take it
Or to leave it
So many consultations
So many ifs and buts
But finally dared to take it
And yes took it
With a hope that mutually transferred
Both of them withdrew their word
Both of them gave me their hands
Once consent
Now dissent
Finding no way to get back
Brooding over the things of past
That life seemed better
But what can you do?
Simply act

THE KILLER VIRUS

You deadly virus...
Came to shatter our lives....
Making everything disrupted....
And everybody distressed....
We wrestle to wipe you away....
And combat to stop you coming our way....
We have hopes to realize....
And unattained goals to chase....
The whole world is at unrest....
You please take some rest....
You have taught us to be locked down....
And have made us wait for a new dawn...
Our relentless medicos are at risk...
And our dauntless police have left their families in a fix...
Never witnessed such a calamitous outbreak so far...
Leave us because we have every reason to live for...
But we are taught lesson....
For we are of the belief that we have are invincible....
You left no superior no inferior....
You have chained everybody....
Leaving no option to fight you...
The aggressive America is no exception for you....
The cunning China is belittled....
The Roman Empire is broken...
The Spanish Kingdom is doomed....
But we, the poor Indians bow before you...
Please leave our land....

We promise, we swear...will never go against the nature's call.....

VALUE YOUR PARENTS

Parents play a key role in our life. They are the most important secure and solid pillars in everyone's life. But some of the people never understand the importance of their parents in life. Here I present a short and meaningful story to remind some people about the essence of parents.

One day an old woman was sitting behind her son named Vijay who is well educated and settled. Vijay was very busy in doing some of his office work. For the mean time a monkey came and sat on the tree which is placed or present outside the balcony window. Mother didn't recognize it (monkey) for first time because of sight. So she asked her son what is on the tree. He replied it's a monkey. For about a mother again asked what is that son? He again replied it's a monkey mom.

For the third time when his mother asked the same question he replied with a loud and frustrated voice "It's just a monkey...can't you understand?" Why are you asking me the same question again and again. Mother was stunned by his behaviour. Vijay moved away from his mother and sat somewhere else in the house. Mother felt very sad. Her throat was full of sorrow. She didn't spoke anything. She even apologised her son for disturbance.

She went back to her room and he recalled the old memories of her life. When Vijay was 5 years old. He saw a squirrel sat on the wall of the house. He asked his mother what is that mom? She replied it's a squirrel. He asked the same question for over 10-15 times, all the time his mother replied calmly. She hadn't feel irritated for the repeated question but felt lovable for his innocence and hugged him.

But now Vijay was well educated and settled but doesn't how to treat his mother. That is person not only just Vijay it may be you and me who are neglecting our parents. Either be mother or father both are God's given protection and love. Remember our parents are the Elder children for us during their old age. Hence, I request you all to treat your parents gently, kindly with love.

I love my parents so much do you? Mora l- Honour your Mother and Father

G.Varshitha.
